The Day of Pentecost: Whitsunday

10:30 am

Holy Eucharist: Rite II

Facebook Live from inside Pohick Church • BCPonline.org, p. 355

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

‘In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,

before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

Benedic, anima mea

Chant by William Croft, 1678-1727

Sung by all seated

- 25 O LORD, how | manifold • are your | works! *
in wisdom you have made them all;
the | earth is | full of • your | creatures.
- 26 Yonder is the great and wide sea;
with its living things too | many • to | number,*
-- | creatures • both | small and | great.
- 27 There move the ships, and there is | that Le|viathan, *
which | you have | made • for the | sport of it.
- 28 All of them | look to | you *
to give them their | food in | due | season.
- 29 You give it to | them; they | gather it; *
you open your hand, and | they are | filled with | good things.
- 30 You hide your face, and | they are | terrified; *
you take away their breath,
and they | die • and re|turn to • their | dust.
- 31 You send forth your Spirit, and | they are • cre|ated; *
and so you re|new the | face of • the | earth.
- 32 May the glory of the LORD en|dure for | ever; *
may the LORD re|joice in | all his | works.
- 33 He looks at the | earth • and it | trembles; *
he touches the | mountains | and they | smoke.
- 34 I will sing to the LORD as | long as • I | live; *
I will praise my | God • while I | have my | being.
- 35 May these words of | mine | please him; *
I will re|joice | in the | LORD.
- 37 Bless the LORD, | O my | soul. *
-- | Halle|lu|jah!

Gloria Patri

Glory to the Father, and | to the | Son, *
and | to the | Holy | Spirit:
As it was in the be|ginning, is | now, *
and | will be • for|ever. A|men.

THE EPISTLE LESSON

1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body-- Jews or Greeks, slaves or free-- and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

John 20:19-23

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

Moment of Silence

The Reverend Ted Renaud

THE NICENE CREED

p. 358

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE (Form IV)

p. 388

Deacon or other leader Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died,
that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

❧ INSTRUCTIONS FOR RECEIVING COMMUNION ❧

In the Episcopal tradition, all baptized Christians are welcomed to receive Communion at the Lord’s Table; simply come to the altar rail and kneel to receive if you are able, or you may stand. If you are unable to come to the rail, please indicate to an usher that you would like communion brought to you.

The options for receiving communion are:

- You may hold out both hands to receive bread and drink from the cup;
- To receive by intinction, please leave the bread in your open palm and the Chalice bearer will dip the bread in the chalice for you and place it back in your hand.
- To reduce germ exposure in the chalice medical authorities have suggested, and the Diocese recommends, only the Chalice Bearer intinct the bread in the Common Cup.
- If you prefer to receive only bread, simply cross one arm across your chest as you hold out your hand for bread.
 - You may cross your arms over your chest and simply receive a blessing.
